DEDICATION

Mr. J. William Horsey; chairman of the board

The sod turning ceremony for the new library.

"Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

If we modify these words of Mordecai to Queen Esther by substituting "College" for "Kingdom", we may fittingly express the growing conviction of the friends of Toronto Bible College regarding J. William Horsey, Esq., LL.D., D.Hum., Litt.D.

At this crucial juncture in the history of our College, surely it was God who sent him to us; first, as the skilled, experienced Chairman of the T.B.C. Growth Campaign; and, more recently, as Chairman of our Board of Governors.

His outstanding organizational gifts, combined with a humble and constantly acknowledged dependence upon God, have given our Board Chairman a secure place both in our admiration and in our love.

The new College Library, which bears his name, will be a lasting memorial to the Christian generosity of Mr. Horsey and his wife. To bring our more transient, but not less warmly personal, tribute we affectionately dedicate to him this '66 Edition of the College "Gateway".

From the President, Faculty and students, gratitude to God is sincere for having brought to us "for such a time as this" Brother J. William Horsey.

COLLEGE LIFE

"Fall Brings The Freshmen, Wonder In Their Eyes . . .

Smiles, kind words and handshakes greeted me as I climbed the steps into a new world. "Here I am, new world," I said to myself with happy expectation.

As if in answer, my not so happy inner-self said, "Slow down boy, this isn't as good as it looks. There is no new world; there is no earthly world entirely void of hypocrisy and deceit; no, not even at Bible College.

Welcome to old faces and new . . .

Freshmon Bonquet at Knox.

Manday brings weekly reports.

Shaken, I looked around and saw many smiling faces. I watched them as they colled out warm welcomes. "You over there," I thought, "you with the wide grin, I wonder are you a 'phony'? And how about you, pleasant-looking girl though you are; are you really happy to give the same directions over and over again, as you say you are?"

RETREAT

Victory ride!

Tug or get wet.

Are you the T.B.C. mystery person?

The rope broke . . .

Anticipation.

Well, there's no time to judge now, besides it isn't quite "Scriptural" is it! I quietly listened as several people said how happy they were to see all the new students. Apparently we were the best freshman class to have come to Bible College so far! I wonder how many other "best classes" there have been over the past seventy-odd years? I would guess that they would number—well, about seventy!

Realization.

Music Appreciation.

The complex chore of registering was eventually climaxed by the presentation of my yellow student-card. Now that I was an official college student, I wanted to get to work. It was good to see that my instructors didn't play games. They didn't promise good times made up exclusively of fun, food and fellowship. They, at least, weren't "phonies"; I felt sure they were real and sincere. These men were genuinely anxious to help me—but only after I had helped myself. I felt convinced of this—for not a spoon was to be seen!

Contortions of a director.

Ladies' Trio: Winnie Gowling, Beth Carscadden, Linda Nolson.

Concentration.

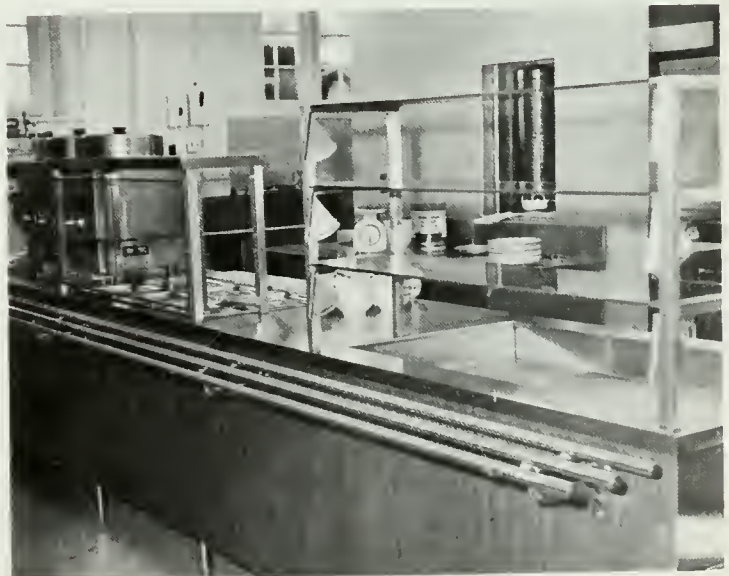

"I'm an IBM computer."

Well, I wanted to get to work; and those concerned seemed happy to oblige. So school got into swing and I swung along with it as well as my inexperienced self would permit.

I had been advised that when in Bible College do as Bible College students do. So faithfully I called out greetings each morning—even when I didn't feel like being cheerful! Most of the others were doing this, so I happily followed suit.

"Our dining room?"

"Our kitchen!"

Missionary Conference 1965.

The College weekend at Fair Havens was a welcome break from early school routine. There I found that I wasn't looking quite so guardedly at fellow students any more. Indeed I was quite pleasantly surprised to find that most of the people were human after all. The number of eraser marks on my 'phony' list was rapidly increasing. I found that formal smiles and hand-shakes were no longer in evidence. I began to take a positive approach to people rather than a negative one. Soon I was able to accept them as they were, and I felt that they accepted me in the same way.

School routine became the order again. Assignments were often done the night before they were due and, alas, students were sometimes unprepared for presentations in class! Bible College was looking more realistic every day.

Haven't you used that line before, Harold?

Preparing for a lecture.

Along with this realistic trend came problems. Students had all types of problems. Do you know what I found? I found that when someone shared a problem with me, I wanted to listen. Another thing I discovered was that when these kids prayed they really prayed. Obviously they believed that God would answer their prayers. Prayer began to bind me to my fellow students, and prayer bound us all to God. I learned to love the fellows I prayed with, and together we learned to love Christ more.

Mr. Strimple stresses the point.

The happy couple.

My 'phony' list had pretty well "had it." It was torn in some places, and was now almost one big smudge mark; so at last I threw it out. You know, I wasn't really happy looking for 'phonies'. There was so much else to do and to enjoy.

Moments of Meditation.

Searching the Scriptures.

Right now I have to go and pray with my prayer partners. Then I have to read II Kings so that I can volunteer some answers in Mr. Simmand's class . . . Happily, I did my book review for Mr. Strimple the other day; it was a relief to get that off my mind . . . I guess I ought to start that essay for Mr. Macleod fairly soon. Then, after supper tonight, I really must put in some practice because I have to sing down at the Scott Mission on Sunday. Tomorrow I have to . . .

Exams are approaching and so is breakfast

"In the past we have always done it this way; maybe we need a change."

"I think it's definitely time for a change, the student body should have a say in choosing school policy."

"The students need an opportunity to voice their opinions to the Cabinet because we're their representatives to faculty."

As the Cabinet meets each week in the interest of students, we find ourselves in a "strait betwixt two" between faculty wisdom and student growing pains; between past tradition and future challenge; and between leadership responsibility and scholastic pressure.

The faculty has entrusted your student government with responsibilities that are unique among Bible colleges. Because of this, your cabinet spends the first hour of their meeting praying for direction in making decisions—decisions which will have far reaching effects in making T.B.C. the place where tomorrow's leaders will receive the finest Christ centered education.

Bible classes teach us how to walk with God and show us how Biblical characters walked with Him; but it's so easy for us to rejoice in this knowledge without letting our hearts experience the joy of practicing God's presence. Willingly walking with God today is more important than knowing many facts about God and being doctrinally and theologically sound. God doesn't just want our intellects, he wants us—in Jesus' own words—to be his "friends." To meet this need our committee has arranged daily prayer meetings as well as several days of prayer throughout the year.

Prayer days have proved to be beneficial for we learn to pray for one another. Our speakers have truly made us aware of the possibilities of prayer. In prayer we meet the Bearer of all our care.

DEVOTIONAL LEADER—Grover Crosby

One longing for inner calm a quest for meaning

"God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself
now then we are ambassadors for Christ!"

The Evangelistic Committee, in this time of reorganization, is seeking for the best way of establishing suitable outlets whereby it might express itself effectively in evangelization. At present, teams are sent out to the various city missions in connection with the Christian service assignments. As students come into direct contact with the complex needs of individuals, they learn how to deal with human problems, and the experience is invaluable for future life work. Tracts and follow-up literature are made available at the school in order to help each student more effectively sow the seed in reaching men who need Christ.

MISSIONARY LEADERS—Grace McKenzie, Mr. Percy, Gerald Fink.

A theme . . . speakers . . . films . . . art work!

We have the date—that's a good start. But think . . . what about these other requirements? Oh, and the student presentation on opening day—it must have punch! At least this year we don't have to construct new conference display boards.

These are some of the tasks that the Missionary Committee face in preparing for the Conference in February. There are numerous last minute duties, and all must—to some extent—lay aside the weight of studies and co-operate to help the Conference run smoothly

This committee also co-operates in the weekly presentation, before the entire student body, of missionary speakers who unfold the task of missions and the requirements for personnel. However, Spurgeon's epigram says: "A sea voyage never yet made a missionary"; this reminds us that we must be active now. The Missionary Committee helps in choosing a project to challenge student support. This year we supplied literature to India

PUBLICATION LEADERS—Phyllis Orr, Mr. Macleod, Les McFarlane.

Should someone outside the school do the work of the Publications Committee or should the students do it? A legitimate question . . . can it be answered?

There is no time to bury talents at T.B.C. The work has to be done; but who will do it? An artist from this class; a photographer from another; someone with a flair for writing; an untiring typist; . . . each has his contribution to make. Hours go into designing layout and copy; but is it not all abundantly worthwhile?

These combined efforts produce a Christmas card, distinctive of the college; and the Gateway for 1966, containing memories of school life which will never be erased.

RECREATION LEADER—Bill McNairn

In office and industry today the emphasis is upon proper recreation, and the big question often is: "What shall I do with my spare time?" With students the question isn't about spare time; but, when nerves are on edge, patience is running low, and studies press hard upon him, he asks: "What can I do to get away from it all for a while?"

Don't give up; we of the recreation committee have the answer: take out your frustrations on a ping-pong ball in a tournament; or use your head in a soccer game; or jump off the deep end into the swimming pool to cool off; things aren't so bad after all!

Our plan is to have various amusements, entertainment and sports to give the students physical exercise and relaxation.

Every fall term begins with a get-acquainted retreat at Fair Havens. Then, at Thanksgiving time, the students who cannot get home, have an outing. Hallowe'en brings out the masks—and the real person as he hides behind it.

Recreation is a must for all; all must get away from books and—temporarily—"let down their hair." Recreation can actually "re-create," and build one up to be a better worker and a more effective student.

... "this one thing I do" ...

The Apostle Paul was a man of resolute purpose, before as well as after his conversion. He was a stranger to half-way measures. With him it was all or nothing. When he opposed Christianity, he did so to an alarming degree. But when he surrendered to God, the same fervor and devotion characterized him.

Hence he could write, "for to me to live is Christ." "I count all things but loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord." "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

This is the secret of success. To succeed, one must have a sure foundation, and one must steadfastly proceed to a clearly defined goal. This is true of institutions; it is true of men. Toronto Bible College was born of a goodly heritage, and established on the Rock of Ages. Her aim has been constant: to magnify the precious Word of God; and faithfully to instruct young people therein.

As another class is about to graduate, and as these splendid young people go forth at their Captain's command, the prospect is bright. True, the obstacles will be many. It has well been said that one can tell when he is on the right road—it is up-grade. But, "if God be for us, who can be against us?" Did not He say, "all power is given unto Me . . . lo, I am with you alway?"

Let us never lose sight of the fact that the warfare to which we have been called differs diametrically from physical combat. We go forth, not in our strength, but in God's omnipotent power. Our weapon is not destructive, but rather the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Were we to rely on ourselves and our own ingenuity, the cause would indeed be hopeless. But rejoice! His strength is made perfect in our weakness. Accordingly, since the battle is the Lord's, victory is assured. Wherefore, "be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."

THE SCOTT MISSION THE MIRACLE ON SPADINA AVENUE

The Scott Mission stands as a Miracle of God's grace as upwards of 1,000 men, women and children cross our threshold daily and find their needs supplied. Food, clothing, furniture, and spiritual guidance and counsel are all needs that are met at the Scott Mission by this Miracle of Providence.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

It is under the impulse of this commission that our aim is to glorify God in the ministry of Christian service to mankind.

Toronto Bible College Students who have helped at the Scott Mission can testify to the great opportunity of Christian witness offered by this ministry of love.

We appreciate your prayerful support.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine in-iquities; who healeth all thy diseases;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;
who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies: Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's."

GRADUATING CLASS HYMN

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee.

"THE LORD SHALL GUIDE THEE CONTINUALLY"
